Laotian Pilots Fly U.S. Planes

By ROY ESSOYAN

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Laotian pilots, flying hastily armed U.S.-made trainer planes, strafed and bombed pro-Communist rebel forces Wednesday and today in the first air raids of the Laotian civil war.

British, French and other European diplomats in the Laotian capital expressed grave concern the air raid—first reported in the six-year-old civil war—would trigger a retaliatory action by the Soviet Union or Communist China.

The Laotian pilots made their first raid in four T-6 observation planes armed with rockets, machine guns and presumably with two 100-pound bombs each. The United States had delivered the planes to pro-Western Premier Boun Oum's forces Tuesday as part of the U.S. military support program for Laos.

U. S. Backs Laotians

WASHINGTON (AP)—State Department officials said today the United States is backing the pro-Western government of Laos in its use of aircraft as well as ground weapons to defend itself against Soviet-supported rebels.

Other authorities recognized the possibility that the Southeast Asian struggle might be entering a new and more dangerous phase. The air strike against rebel forces, reported from Vientiane today, was the first of the long civil war in Laos.

Reaction of Allied diplomats at Vientiane indicated that Britain and France had strongly disagreed with the United States policy of supplying the planes which made the strike possible. News dispatches quoted the diplomats as saying that the Soviet Union or Red China might retaliate.

That possibility was foreseen here but the State Department insisted the operation being conducted by the government of Premier Boun Oum is strictly defensive. Officials also said that the Soviet Union had been warned in notes sent by the Laos government—and rejected by Moscow—that Laos would defend its frontiers. Soviet planes have airlifted supplies to the pro-Communist rebels.

The United States still hopes for a diplomatic solution of the crisis and welcomed evidence today that Soviet Premier Khrushchev may be thinking along that line also. Khrushchev said the Soviet Union "regards favorably" a proposal from Cambodia calling for an international conference on the situation. The State Department said that proposal is receiving serious consideration here.

RAILROAD FIREMAN FATALLY INJURED

MOUNT VERNON, Ill. (AP)—A 59-year-old fireman for the Louisville and Nashville Railroad was fatally injured in Mount Vernon Wednesday night when his car and an L and N train collided. Police said Gene Hughey was returning home near Mount Vernon from his job in East St. Louis.

The crash occurred on the Broadway street crossing. Hughey died about an hour later in a hospital.

The train was No. 58, bound for St. Louis from Evansville, Ind. Hughey was driving a small foreign car which was destroyed. The crossing is protected by flasher lights.

Expect USSR To Make New Attack On Dag

By WILLIAM N. OATIS

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The Soviet Union was expected to demand today that the U.N. Security Council ask the General Assembly to end Belgian trusteeship over Ruanda-Urundi, east of the Congo. There was a possibility the Soviets would ask for an emergency assembly meeting.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin also was ready to press a new attack on Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld, charging that he condoned the use of Ruanda-Urundi as a jump-off site for a Congolese army attack on pro-Lumumba forces.

JFK Fills 4 Posts In Interior Department

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—President-elect John F. Kennedy today filled four top positions in the Interior Department. He also announced that the Eisenhower administration's reclamation bureau chief will remain.

The reclamation commissioner is Floyd E. Dominy, 60. A political independent and a veteran in the bureau, he was named director by President Eisenhower last year.

The president-elect also announced selection of: James K. Carr, 46, chairman of the California Water Commission, as undersecretary of the interior.

Kenneth Holm, 45, Groton, S.D., farm leader, as assistant secretary for water and power. John A. Carver Jr., 42, administrative assistant to Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, as assistant secretary for land resources.

And Frank Barry, 47, Tucson, Ariz., lawyer, as the Interior Department's solicitor or chief legal officer.

Kennedy announced the selections—all Democrats—after consultation with Rep. Stewart Udall, D-Ariz., who will be secretary of the interior in the new administration.

Kennedy, getting in a final visit at the Atlantic shore home of his parents before taking office Jan. 20, had only one scheduled business engagement today—a morning conference with Gov. Terry Sanford of North Carolina.

The president-elect plans further work on his inaugural address and another round of golf. Wednesday Kennedy—at 43 the youngest man ever elected president—paid a social call on the oldest living former president, Herbert Hoover, 86.

Hoover is in Florida for the dedication today of a dike named for him. It is located at Lake Okeechobee at Clewiston, Fla.

The president-elect and his father, Joseph P. Kennedy, former ambassador to Britain, called on Hoover at the home of Palm Beach banker H. Loy Anderson, who was host at a reception for the former president.

Weldon Youth May Survive Freak Accident

DECATUR, Ill. (AP)—A high school youth whose heart was pierced by an auto fan blade may recover, thanks to a long emergency operation during which surgeons massaged his heart for more than four hours.

Victim of a freak accident was Larry Long, 17, of Weldon, Ill. Long and other students started home in an automobile after classes at Deland-Weldon High School Wednesday. A clattering noise developed in the engine.

Long, a passenger in the car, jumped out and raised the hood, seeking to spot the trouble. A blade flew off the revolving radiator cooling fan, penetrating his chest.

The youth was rushed 30 miles southwest to Decatur where doctors in St. Mary's Hospital began immediately a five-hour operation. Shock of the stabbing injury stopped his heart as the blade was withdrawn.

Then, for hours, the heart massage was administered by relays of doctors while other doctors repaired the heart puncture. The youth remained on the critical list today, but doctors said his recovery chances appeared good.

Cuba Tells Plans To Build 20,000 Workers' Homes

By ROBERT BERRELEZ

HAVANA (AP)—Predictions of a "Yankee invasion" were dropped from the front page of the semi-official paper. Revolution today and replaced by an announcement of plans to build 20,000 government homes for workers.

This report was given banner headline prominence, although the newspaper continued to drum up enthusiasm for Friday night's grand march to the presidential palace as a show of support for Prime Minister Fidel Castro's government against any threat of "Yankee aggression."

Castro is expected to address the meeting. Diplomats here predicted he would then claim—as he has in past invasion scares—that would-be invaders had been frightened away by a massive demonstration of Cuban power plus the support of the regime's friends throughout the world, including the Soviet Union.

A distinct slump has been noted in military activity around Havana.

Charges U.S. Planes Buzz Reds

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union charged today that U.S. military aircraft buzzed 35 Soviet ships in various seas last month. The Soviets warned that such incidents must cease.

Minister Viktor Bakayev, at a news conference, waved a piece of paper and said it was a radiogram from a Soviet sea captain reporting that a British bomber was "raiding"—meaning buzzing—his ship this morning.

The radiogram, Bakayev said, was from the ship Sergei Kirov at the southern entrance to the Red Sea.

He said the buzzings took place in the Pacific, Atlantic, Mediterranean, South China Sea and in other areas.

"The leaders of the U.S. aggressive policy should bear in mind that the Soviet Union has the strength and means to ensure the safety of Soviet shipping anywhere in international waters," Bakayev said.

Chances Even For Fair, Mild Inauguration Day

WASHINGTON (AP)—There's a better than even chance that it won't rain or snow on Jan. 20, Inauguration Day. And the chances are even better that the temperature will be above freezing.

That should be a bit comforting if you are one of the thousands who have dealt out from $3 to $25 for a grandstand seat to watch President John F. Kennedy's inaugural parade.

There is one parade unit that is rather hoping for a heavy snow. That's from the state of Maine, and it has 10 northwoods huskies ready to pull a sled down Pennsylvania Avenue.

If there's no snow, they'll have to put wheels on the sled, and that might spoil the effect.

The Weather Bureau says it's still too early to forecast the weather accurately for Jan. 20, but the weathermen checked into the past records and came up with these statistics:

There's a chance of 3 out of 5 that there will be no rain or snow, and an 8 out of 10 chance for above-freezing temperatures.

Inauguration Day was changed from March 4 to Jan. 20 in 1937, for Franklin D. Roosevelt's second inaugural. It rained heavily. But since then there have been five Jan. 20 inaugurations with no precipitation.

The echoing, drafty National Guard Armory here is being transformed into a ballroom fit for a president. But the Inaugural Ball is so big it will be in three sections and three locations. The Kennedys and the Lyndons B. Johnsons will visit all three.

The walls of the armory are being covered with pale gray cloth called Egyptian rep. Gold eagles with 40-foot wingspreads will look down from each end of the huge auditorium. The balcony will be faced with white satin and studded with the 50 state seals.

The presidential box will be topped by a gold satin canopy. In the middle of the floor will rise a 40-foot circular bandstand decked in satin, golden ropes and a gold eagle.

ILLINOIS REDS CHANGE COMMUNIST FRONT NAME

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Francis E. Walter, D-Pa., said Wednesday that a new Communist front had arisen to join the ranks of those crying for abolition of his House Committee on Un-American Activities.

Walter identified the organization as the Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights, room 811, 189 W. Madison St., Chicago. "This Communist front is merely a warmed-over name change of a former puppet organization of the Communist party in Illinois," Walter said.

Walter said the former organization was the Chicago Committee to Defend Democratic Rights.

Historic Inn Slated For Demolition

HINSDALE, Ill. (AP)—It promises to be a sad 125th anniversary for the old Castle Inn, more recently called the Lincoln Inn after a Springfield lawyer who found lodging in the roadhouse.

The two-story structure, constructed of clapboard instead of the usual rough-hewn logs, stood a full day's journey west of Chicago when it was built in 1836.

Abraham Lincoln and John Wentworth, Chicago's second mayor, were among the thousands of persons who stayed at the inn during travel over the old South-west Highway.

But its current owner, a La Grange auto dealer, says the building is slated for demolition. A group of Hinsdale residents report their efforts to raise funds to restore the inn have proved futile.

The inn provided office space for the government of the area, known in the 1800s as Fultonsburg. Pioneers lodged at the inn while surveying the countryside for farm sites.

Fultonsburg's first post office and school classrooms were in the building. The town council met in the inn. It was used as a resting place for slaves escaping Dixie via the underground railway, and later became a Civil War recruiting center.

It served as an inn during the early 1900s and was more recently used as an antique shop, but has stood vacant for several years. Age has overtaken the building. Its long sweeping roof is sagging. The porch pillars are barely capable of supporting the porch roof that runs the length of the inn.

Engineers estimated it would cost $80,000 to dismantle the inn and reconstruct it, said Norman F. Clarke, head of the group trying to save the building.

The structure apparently is in its original form except for some restoration work performed during the 1930s by the Civilian Conservation Corps, Clarke said.

Its owner, Robert Henneberg, promised the group it could have doors, windows and other fixtures. Clarke said the DuPage County Historical Society has detailed floor plans for possible reproduction of the inn on another site.

But efforts to raise funds have been slow, he added. "Everyone says it's a shame to tear down historical buildings, but in the end, nothing can be done to save them."

Liberals Glum Over Chances To Kill Filibusters

WASHINGTON (AP)—Defeat in their drive to strengthen the Senate's antifilibuster rule at the outset of the new Congress, Senate liberals took a glum view today of their chances for success later.

"A devastating blow," said Sen. Kenneth E. Keating, R-N.Y., who contends a rules change is necessary to permit passage of meaningful civil rights legislation.

But Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., leader of Southern foes of the move, hailed the outcome as "a great victory for the sanity, dignity and prerogatives of the Senate."

He also called it a rebuke for Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the Senate's presiding officer until Jan. 20, who sided with proponents of a change on a key parliamentary question.

The controversy, which has tied up the Senate since it convened Jan. 3, was shunted off to the Senate Rules Committee Wednesday by a 50-46 vote.

DISMISSED FROM GEORGIA U.—Miss Charlayne Hunter wore this big smile as she pronounced herself "very rested" after spending night in woman's dormitory of the University of Georgia, Athens, Ga. Protest Suspension Of Negro Students After Riot, Violence

ATHENS, Ga. (AP)—Negro attorneys hurried to Macon today to contest in federal court suspension of two members of their race from the University of Georgia after rioting and violence erupted on the campus after they first attended classes.

The university opened for classes at 8 a.m. without Charlayne A. Hunter, 18, and Hamilton E. Holmes, 19, who were removed from the school early today by state troopers under a proclamation of Gov. Ernest Vandiver that emergency action was needed to restore order.

An uproarious crowd of students and townspeople estimated by police at 2,000 swirled about the dormitory occupied by Charlayne before university officials and Vandiver acted.

The young Negroes, visibly shaken, reached their homes in a patrol car in the pre-dawn hours. Both declined comment.

Joseph Williams, university dean of students, announced their suspension "in the interest of their personal safety and in the interest of the safety and welfare of the more than 7,000 students at the university."

"They will be withdrawn until such time as the members of my staff and I determine that it is safe and practical for them to return to school," Williams said.

Donald L. Hollowell and other counsel for the students, were to present the suspension order to U. S. Dist. Judge W. A. Bootle with a request that it be voided.

Chief of Police E. E. Hardy called Wednesday night's outbreak "organized rowdism, led by strangers from out of the city." It followed shortly after further tension created by Georgia Tech's 88-80 overtime basketball victory over the university team in a disputed decision.

He said outside agitators capitalized on student tensions built up by the basketball game. Older persons were observed in the crowd, shouting "Come on, let's get them."

The demonstrators threw rocks at the dormitory windows, threw firecrackers starting fires in nearby fields and woods, chanted segregation slogans and yelled "Nigger, go home." Holmes was not a direct target. He lives off the (Continued On Page Nine)

EFFECTIVE ACTION
EATONTOWN, N.J. (AP)—Councilman Joseph Kelleny of the Eatontown Borough Council suggests the following course of action: John Q. Citizen phones public officials at 2 a.m. with a problem:

"Take his number and say you'll call him back," Kelleny told the council recently.

"Then set your alarm for 3:30. When it rings, phone Mr. Citizen and give him his answer. It works very effectively."

Military Affairs—

Kennedy Administration's Plans For 'New Frontier'

Editor's Note—As the inauguration nears, problems facing the Kennedy administration in military affairs outnumber announced programs for solutions. In the fourth of six articles on the broad outline of Kennedy policies, an Associated Press specialist identifies areas awaiting important decisions.

By ELTON C. FAY
AP Military Affairs Writer
WASHINGTON (AP)—President-elect John F. Kennedy said he wants to speed up the missile program, expand forces for fighting conventional war, improve air defense, do more about protection against rocket-firing submarines.

If the incoming administration makes these and other changes in the nation's military program it will cost money—perhaps more than the $42-billion or $43-billion defense program expected to be submitted by the outgoing Eisenhower administration. But Kennedy also has expressed belief that billions can be saved by administrative improvements and curtailing service competition.

Beyond these programs which he would send to Congress, several specific requests among them proposals to "accelerate our Polaris, Minuteman and other strategic missile programs."

In the same statement, Kennedy said competition between the armed forces must be minimized, that "our competitors lie on the other side of the Iron Curtain."

It happens that the sharpest competition among the services at the moment concerns the very weapons mentioned by Kennedy—the Navy's Polaris missile-atom submarine system, on the one hand, and the Minuteman and other strategic missile programs of the Air Force.

Available to Kennedy will be the policy followed by the present administration: a mixture of strategic weapons launched from dis-

Asks Prayer For New Leaders

Tells What His Regime Achieved

By Douglas B. Cornell

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower described America today as standing at unprecedented heights, and asked prayers that future leaders will be able to keep this nation strong and at peace.

In a farewell State of the Union message, the 70-year-old President reviewed for Congress the years of his administration and saw them as a period in which this country forged ahead in foreign and economic policies.

But he solemnly noted that grave problems will confront the incoming administration of President-elect John F. Kennedy. The continuing Communist menace in many parts of the world and economic problems which leave "little room for complacency."

"I do not close this message implying that all is well—that all problems are solved," Eisenhower said. "For progress implies both new and continuing problems and, unlike presidential administrations, problems rarely have terminal dates."

Eisenhower's 6,500-word message was one of a series of last-taking statements before he turns the reins of government over to Kennedy on Friday of next week.

The White House announced that Eisenhower will make a farewell address to the nation over radio-TV networks next Tuesday night. He will speak at 8:30 p.m. (EST) from his office.

It also announced that he will hold a farewell news conference before leaving office. The time for this has not been set.

Since he is leaving office, Eisenhower avoided in his State of the Union message the suggestions to Congress for legislation which such a message usually contains.

He did tell the legislators that the budget he will submit next week will be a balanced one. By law, the outgoing president must submit a proposed spending-revenue program for the fiscal year beginning next July 1. In the nature of things, this will be subject to considerable modification in accordance with Kennedy proposals after Eisenhower leaves office.

In noting the problems confronting the nation at this time, Eisenhower said:

"Abroad there is the continuing Communist threat to the freedom of Berlin, an explosive situation in Laos, the problems caused by Communist penetration in Cuba, as well as the many problems connected with the development of the new nations in Africa. These areas, in particular, call for delicate handling and constant review."

"At home several conspicuous problems remain—promoting higher levels of employment, with special emphasis on areas in which heavy unemployment has persisted; continuing to provide for steady economic growth and preserving the sound currency; bringing our balance of payments into more reasonable equilibrium."

Can U.S. Stem Red Tide In Laos And Not Trigger Full-Scale War?

Editor's Note—Laos has become a key point in the cold war. Thousands of words involving claims and counterclaims swirl around this small kingdom. What are the basic facts in this situation? Here is an appraisal by an experienced AP reporter who has worked in China, Japan and the Soviet Union—and spent most of the last six months in Laos.

By ROY ESSOYAN

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—The Communist movement is chalking up gains in Laos. And the United States has little hope of reversing the tide without triggering full-scale war.

Most responsible officials here feel the United States will not take such a step unless Communist North Viet Nam invades Laos.

And these officials do not expect such an invasion.

This leaves two alternatives: 1. A political settlement benefiting the Communists because recent military successes have placed them in bargaining position.

2. Continuation of the six-year civil war in which pro-Communist Pathet Lao rebels now hold the initiative thanks to military aid and advice from Soviet Russia, Communist China and Communist North Viet Nam.

The Pathet Lao are doing fine without a Communist invasion, and the Communists traditionally stop short of triggering bigger wars than they can handle.

A massive land invasion of Laos from China or North Viet Nam is physically impracticable.

It would take days to move invading forces down treacherous mountain paths and through jungle trails. Only a few so-called highways exist in Laos. The invaders would have only the weapons they could carry on their backs because the terrain is too rugged to haul anything bigger.

Air invasion of Laos would be more practicable militarily, but practically no one here believes the Soviet Union and Communist China are prepared knowingly to precipitate an all-out war for Southeast Asia.

A covert test of strength with East and West each aiding and supplying its side, yes, but not all-out war.

A major East-West clash in Laos could envelop most of Southeast Asia.

Annual physical examinations are required of all school employees in District No. 117. This includes a chest X-ray or a tuberculin skin test followed by an X-ray if the test is positive. All regular examinations are given by family physicians, while the tuberculin testing program is done through the cooperation of the Morgan County Sanitarium and Dr. Morris Greenberg.

Most people think of mathematics as a field of study which has remained the same for many years and assume that it will always be the same. However, great changes are occurring in mathematics. Large sums of money are being spent by the foundations to finance study and experimental programs under way in several university centers around the country. Actually, the subject is getting a rather thorough overhaul. In the process, studies are being made on how to teach the subject more effectively and on what age levels the various concepts should be taught. For instance, in an experiment in California second graders are being taught geometry.

—District 117—

Several teachers at Washington School are at present going to school. Courtney Ford, the principal, is attending classes in School Law at Western Illinois University at Macomb one night a week; Mrs. Merrill Stewart and Mrs. John Marshall are enrolled in Psychology of Adjustment at MacMurray College; and Mrs. John Cully is taking Arithmetic Methods for the Elementary Teacher at MacMurray.

—District 117—

The Language Arts committee has been working for over a year now on the articulation of language arts in the classrooms of School District 117. At present the members of the committee are writing a guide to indicate what is or should be taught at each grade level from kindergarten through twelfth grade. Each teacher in the grade schools and the English teachers in junior and senior high school can have a better idea of what has been taught or when some phase of written or oral language will be taught. Miss Maurine Self is chairman of this committee.

Lutheran Aid At Arenzville Starts New Year

ARENZVILLE—The meeting of the Ladies Aid of Trinity Lutheran church was held Thursday, Jan. 5, and the forenoon was spent quilting and socially. A luncheon was served at noon by Mrs. Herbert Strubbe, Mrs. Herbert Tegeder, Mrs. Harold Wessler and Mrs. Roland Welch, and the tables were beautifully decorated with winter scenes.

The meeting followed the meal, opened with the hymn, "The Star Proclaims the King Is Here." Psalm 145 was read responsively, followed by a prayer in unison. Rev. Welch gave the topic, Woman on Mission, from the Lutheran Woman's Quarterly. Pictures were shown from Missions in Nigeria, also a film strip, Litter Bug from L. A. in California. One stanza of each of the following hymns was sung, "As With Gladness 'Ten of Old" and "Brightest and Best of the Sons of the Morning," with Mrs. Harold Wessler at the piano. The president, Mrs. John Phelps presided at the business meeting, and welcomed a new member, Mrs. Leland Winkelman. Thirty-two members answered the roll call. Mrs. Willard Peck, Christian growth chairman, called attention to numerous interesting articles in the Quarterly, for reading and study. Committees were appointed for future projects. The birthday song was sung for Mrs. Willard Peck, Mrs. Albert Witte, and Mrs. Arthur Lovekamp. The meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer in unison. The Mite Box collection was then taken. Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jenot and family of Springfield on Jan. 2 were Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Dober and family, Frank Dober, Mr. and Mrs. James Zillion, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Harbin and family, all of Arenzville, and Mr. and Mrs. John Walters of Virginia. Mrs. Edward Middendorf of Chapin visited with her sister, Mrs. Clara Kornsmeier on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. James Zillion attended funeral services for their nephew, Duane Daucher, at Pekin on Tuesday morning.

"AS I END THE REFRAIN..."—His namesake had a long nose, so why not a long face for a two-year-old basset hound named Cyranos de Bergerac? Owned by Mrs. Jacqueline Reed, of New York, Cyranos was arriving home from Paris aboard the liner America.

Jersey County Votes Fund For Cattle Tests

JERSEYVILLE — The Jersey County Board of Supervisors has appropriated $750 to be used in the forthcoming county wide tests of local cattle droves for Brucellosis. The money will be utilized for obtaining helpers who will work in the townships to line up herds for the veterinarians.

The testing program will be one hundred per cent compulsory, according to state and federal laws passed recently which give counties eighteen months to complete the brucellosis tests.

Herd owners having suspects or reactors will be paid indemnity at the rate of $50 for grade animals and $100 for pure bred animals.

Tests will be secured from county assessors. Dairy farmers who sell milk have ring tests made and therefore only those dairy herds having reactors or suspects will be included in the compulsory test. Farmers who have beef cattle six months of age or older animals in small herds where milk is not sold will also be included in this test.

Beef producers in Jersey county will have a sizeable stake in the Jersey County Brucellosis Control Program, John Pero, county farm adviser, indicated here Monday. Pero pointed out that the disease hits where it hurts the most, in the calf crop. When a dairy cow aborts because of Bang's Disease, not only is the calf lost, but milk production decreases. The cow may produce some milk to help offset her feed costs, but usually she operates at a loss.

Chairman Settles Argument Over Medical Bills For Aged

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chairman of the White House Conference on Aging had to settle a disagreement Wednesday among delegates over the medical bills of older people.

Chairman Robert W. Keane, former New Jersey Republican congressman, in effect declared those favoring a Social Security health insurance plan the winners.

As a result, it's expected such a plan will become a part of a final report from the conference which will be submitted to President-elect John F. Kennedy and Congress.

Keane made his ruling after two sections of the conference took opposing stands, one voting that Congress enact a health insurance plan tied to Social Security and the other voting that present legislation was adequate.

The difference resulted from the peculiar structure of the conference, which gives the right to make final recommendations to 20 different sections of delegates.

Each section was given the responsibility of making recommendations on different aspects of the problems of the nation's older generation.

The entire conference of 2,700 delegates will not vote on recommendations.

The vote favoring the Social Security approach was taken by the section on income maintenance—the one which conference officials had formally given the task of making recommendations on financing medical care for the elderly. The vote was 170-99.

The opposing view came—by a 165-122 vote—from the section on health and medical care, which was supposed to deal only with means of improving health and medical care.

Keane solved the conflict by directing the chairman of the health and medical care section, Dr. Leonard W. Larson, president of the American Medical Association, to have his group withdraw its formal opposition to social security health insurance.

SOYBEANS BOLSTER WEAKENED MARKET

CHICAGO (AP)—Grain futures settled into weakness but soybeans pulled out of an early broad setback and worked well to the plus side today on the Board of Trade.

Transactions were at a considerably slackened pace after the first few minutes with the market generally attracting only moderate support at the declines.

Brokers said wheat was steady fairly well by export buying but that those interests were by no means aggressive and were not chasing the market.

The rally in soybeans was credited mainly to short covering.

At midday, wheat was unchanged to 1/4 cent a bushel lower, March $2.09 1/4; corn 1/4-1/2 lower, March $1.11 1/4; oats 1/4-1/2 lower, March $1.16 1/4; soybeans 3/4-1/2 higher, January $2.39 1/4.

Wheat at the close was 1/4 to 1 1/2 cents a bushel lower, March $2.08 3/4; corn 1/2 to 1 cent lower, March $1.10 1/4-1 1/2; oats 1/4 to 1 1/2 lower, March $1.15; soybeans 1/2 higher to 1/4 lower, January $2.39 1/4.

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP) — Stagnant reinvestment demand prevailed over profit taking to give the stock market an irregular edge to the upside early this afternoon. Trading was heavy.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .20 to 226.30 with the industrials up .30, rails up .10 and utilities up .20.

As it has every day this week, the market weathered selling by traders on profits realized in the turn-of-year rally, countering this with strong buying.

The market was mixed at the start and as mid-day approached, nudged to the upside on balance.

Confidence in an eventual business upturn this year and of anti-recession measures to be taken by the Kennedy administration were still cited as reasons for the improvement of some of the badly battered market wheelhorses.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 1.21 at 620.42. Corporate bonds were higher. Governments were unchanged to slightly higher in fairly slow trading.

Widow Says She's Engaged To Nathan Leopold

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP) — A middle-aged widow who operates a flower shop here said Wednesday she is engaged to marry Nathan Leopold, the paroled 1924 Chicago thrill-killer of Bobby Franks.

Trudi Garcia de Quevedo told an interviewer no date has been set for the marriage. She and Nathan are Jewish. He is 56; her age was not given.

Leopold earlier asked the Illinois Parole and Pardon Board to cut his parole period to permit him to marry and to become a teacher.

Sentenced to a life term in the Franks slaying, Leopold was paroled in 1958 and has been in Puerto Rico since. In an application to Charles F. Kinney, chairman of the Illinois board, Leopold asked that the five-year parole period be reduced to three years.

Following his parole Leopold went to work as a hospital technician. He subsequently undertook graduate study in social work at the University of Puerto Rico and was said to have met his fiancée at social functions they attended.

Leopold was a 19-year-old honor graduate at the University of Chicago when he and 16-year-old Richard Louis, another honor graduate, murdered Franks, a 14-year-old schoolboy.

Both Leob and Leopold received identical sentences to the state prison at Joliet, Ill. Leob was stabbed to death by another inmate in 1936.

Kinney said the board may express an opinion on the petition when it meets next week.

Mrs. Garcia was born Trudi Feld in Baltimore and came to Puerto Rico in the 1930s. She said she is "a couple of years younger" than Leopold. Her late husband was a prominent Puerto Rican doctor.

She said she met Leopold in 1958 through friends active in the Jewish Community Center here. The couple was seen together publicly a few times and there were occasional rumors of a romance.

Mrs. Garcia indicated she and Leopold would live at her present home after marriage.

No Prospect Of Relations With Red China: Rusk

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
WASHINGTON (AP) — Dean Rusk, the secretary of state-designate, said today he sees no prospect now for establishing normal relations with Red China.

He also commented, in an appearance before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, that "we are very much disturbed by the events which have occurred" in Cuba.

But he declined further comment on the Cuban situation beyond saying it is "of vital interest" to the United States and to the Western Hemisphere as well.

On the subject of Red China, he noted that the United States has a security treaty with the Nationalist Chinese government on Formosa.

In addition, he said, there is the situation presented by the Red Chinese attitude that there should be no consideration given to the government on Formosa.

The committee questioned him in preparation for action on his upcoming nomination by President-elect John F. Kennedy.

Republicans indicated he would get a friendly reception.

Rusk, responding to a question by Sen. Alexander Wiley, R-Wis., said that the question of Chinese policy is "a very complicated one" that will have to be subjected to continuous study.

"The presence in mainland China of a large and powerful force is one of the facts of the world we cannot ignore," Rusk said.

He made it clear that the position of Red China in any disarmament agreement and the difficult situation in the United Nations likewise contributed to the complexity.

But, he said, "I see no prospect at the present time that normal relations can be considered or established with Red China."

Wants Airline To Continue Serving Capital

WASHINGTON (AP)—Springfield modernized its airport after assurances American Airlines would continue to serve the city, an official has testified in opposition to the line's petition to drop service to the Illinois city.

J. David Jones, vice chairman of the Springfield Airport Authority's board of commissioners, told a Civil Aeronautics Board hearing Wednesday the airport wouldn't have been improved without American's assurances of continued service.

American has asked the CAB for permission to disband service to Springfield and Peoria, Ill. In the same case, Ozark Air Lines asks permission to make one-stop flights between Chicago and St. Louis, stopping at Peoria and Springfield.

Jones said Springfield has many business and legislative requirements justifying service by a trunkline air carrier. Springfield, he said, "is not just an ordinary city of 83,000 and should not be considered in this restrictive category."

"It has many factors which generate travel not normally found in other cities of this same population."

Witnesses have charged Ozark can't maintain the quality of service to Peoria and Springfield provided by American. Others also assert American has downgraded the quality of its service in an attempt to discourage traffic at the two points.

A Washington economic consultant, James G. Ray, named 197 cities smaller than Peoria served by one or more trunk airlines.

He said there are two communities smaller than Springfield or Peoria served by trunk lines, and nine other cities served by three trunk carriers.

Interpreting The News

By J. M. ROBERTS
Associated Press News Analyst
A proposal for a new large-scale international conference to seek a solution of the civil war in Laos reminds that twice before—when the pro-Communist forces were weaker than now, and when the Communist bloc was not supplying arms—such solutions have been reached and failed.

Both failures have accompanied acceptance by Western negotiators of the false premise that Communists can take part, instead of just trying to take over, in a government.

At the Laos Communists, occupying a border area adjoining the Communist sphere, haggled and haggled over terms of the Geneva agreement to prevent integration of the country, finally came to terms in 1950, but only temporarily. Fighting broke out almost as soon as the commission decided its work was finished.

After the 1954 agreement, a part of measures taken to end the Indochina war, between France and the Communists, the Soviet Union cochairman of the Geneva conference let things simmer in Southeast Asia. Now she is actively supporting the rebels with supplies, and Red forces in North Viet Nam and Red China are on hand for intervention at any time.

This the United States says she will not countenance.

To divert activity toward negotiation and away from the field of threats, Britain suggested revival of the International Control Commission — India, Poland and Canada. The United States said yes, provided King Savang Vatthana's government agreed, but the Soviet Union said no because a neutralist government is her choice. Now Cambodia has suggested a 14-nation conference, including Red China, and first signs suggested the idea might prevail.

Such a conference could hardly produce a solution, in a situation where the Communists are determined that there shall be no solution except one that gives them the country.

It just might, however, gain enough time to let the Communists escape from a situation threatening a large-scale war which Red China might want but which the Soviet Union does not.

Observers are pretty much agreed that the Pathet Lao, the local Communist organization, is stronger than ever, due partly to organizational efforts and partly to the split between the neutralists and the pro-Western faction of the king. This puts them in just the position that the Communists want, for internal conquest without international war. Unkept agreements have kept the pot simmering for six years, and a West dividend on policy seems unable to produce anything better.

east Asia because of the location of this landlocked jungle kingdom. Communist conquest of Laos would bring Communist borders to Thailand and South Viet Nam. Both countries have warned they are ready to fight to prevent this.

The United States and North Viet Nam are equally concerned about possibility of a Western takeover of Laos because it would bring the West's frontiers to their borders.

It is generally believed both blocks would settle for a neutral Laos but each side wants Laotian neutrality to lean toward its side. Souvanna Phouma, the former premier, considered by many as one of the few outstanding patriots of integrity in Laos, twice tried to make this sort of neutrality work. Both East and West apparently distrusted him. The Communists heckled him from one side, and the United States refrained from giving him wholehearted support.

The United States has poured $300 million in aid, mostly military, into Laos in six years. The Soviets have a foothold during Souvanna's 15-week tenure. Feeling deprived of U.S. aid, he called on the Soviet Union for economic assistance.

The Soviets responded with an airlift of rice and gasoline, which was switched to arms and technicians when Souvanna fled the country last month and pro-Communist Laotian elements took over.

It is likely that 95 per cent of the two million people, easygoing subsistence farmers and villagers, know nothing of communism or democracy.

Most live in remote mountain and jungle villages. They do not even know that Laos won its independence six years ago. Many have not heard of Souvanna or of Prince Boun Oum, the current premier.

The bulk of American aid has meant nothing to them. Some have benefited from American agricultural reform and irrigation programs and U.S. medical aid and sanitation measures, an estimated 2 percent of total U.S. aid to Laos.

A handful of devoted American agricultural specialists and health experts living the life of the primitive Laotians have won friends for the United States.

They are a drop of pure spring water in what is largely a sea of mud.

The wedding is set for Saturday when their parents are expected to arrive.

NAVY TO BRING 11,000 DEPENDENT PERSONNEL HOME
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy plans to bring home about 11,000 of the 40,000 dependents of personnel overseas in the next 10 months.

The 11,000 figure announced by the Navy Wednesday is well below the original schedule suggested by the Defense Department after the program was ordered by President Eisenhower to save dollar-spending abroad.

Defense officials originally wanted to reduce Navy dependents overseas to a total of 17,500.

TAX LIEN AGAINST BETTE DAVIS
LOS ANGELES (AP)—A $24,631 tax lien is on file against actress Bette Davis and her divorced husband Gary Merrill.

The Internal Revenue Service said Wednesday that the amount is sought as additional tax for 1957-58. Miss Davis divorced Merrill in Portland, Me., last July 6.

Illinois Couple's Cinderella Story Of Inauguration

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill. (AP)—The Edgar E. Mauers can forget about worries over the expense of attending inauguration ceremonies next week for Mauers' war-time shipmate, President-elect John F. Kennedy. And there's no worry about what they'll wear.

Business firms and others in their home town of nearby Cahokia are outfitting the couple and paying all expenses. Relatives will take care of their four children upon their departure for Washington Tuesday by train.

Despite financial worries, there never was doubt they'd accept their invitation as honored guests. "You can't turn down the President of the United States, especially if he was your wartime C.O.," said Mauers, a factory worker.

Mauers was a crewman aboard Mr. Kennedy's PT boat during World War II when it was wrecked by a Japanese destroyer.

An apparel company is providing Mrs. Mauers a ball gown, cocktail dress, gloves, hat and shoes. She was given a free permanent wave. Another firm is outfitting Mauers and various groups are taking care of the travel costs and other expenses.

"It's like a Cinderella story," said Mrs. Mauers.

The 'Hello' Couple Of Chambersburg

The Chambersburg Telephone Co., one of the last farmers' mutual telephone companies in this area, is slated to go out of business pretty soon.

The patrons will like the convenience of around-the-clock dialing, with its privacy and sharper reception, but they'll miss the warm-hearted, personal attention of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Major, who have been tending the exchange board for the past 31 years.

The company was formed by the farmers and town people of Chambersburg township. A few lines were run beyond the township boundaries, but the company remained small. Today it has 80 subscribers on 24 lines. There's 13 telephones on one circuit, which makes for extremely bad reception if the neighbors decide to help you listen.

There's a direct line to Perry (toll charge 10c) and two to Pittsfield. All long distance calls are made through Pittsfield, so if a Chambersburg man wants to talk to his friend in Versailles, six miles away, the call is routed via Pittsfield, Springfield, Mt. Sterling, Versailles. A chat with a friend in Meredosia, three miles away goes through Pittsfield and Jacksonville.

No 40 Hour Week

It is hard to count up the number of hours the Majors have been on duty. Usually they open up at 6 a.m., during the busy farming seasons; 7 a.m. in the winter. A high percentage of the day's calls are completed by 9 a.m., and the Majors have their breakfast about 9:30. Theoretically, the board closes at 8 p.m., but in practice its open the clock around.

"My heart still jumps in my throat when the board rings real late at night, or early in the morning," Mrs. Major says. "I know that some of my friends are in trouble."

Call At Night: Emergency

A patron can call in and let the Majors know where he'll be during the day—and his calls will go through in jig time. This can be put under the head of deluxe service, but it's not expensive. The assessment, or charge, per phone is 60c a month, payable by the 10th of the month.

Most subscribers pay by the quarter or the year, and the Majors are also the collectors.

Roy Major was born on a farm in the McKinley Chapel neighborhood 72 years ago and Zoe Grace Metz was born in the north end of Chambersburg 62 years ago. They were married in Pittsfield Dec. 12, 1917, and began farming in the bottoms east of Chambersburg.

His eyesight began to dim. "I went to doctors most everywhere," he recalls, "but they couldn't do me any good and I've been blind for 32 years."

They Take A Steady Job

A blind man can't do much on a farm. At that time Mrs. Pearl High, who had been the operator for nine years, decided to leave Chambersburg. So the Majors took over.

The salary was modest, but house rent was free. Mrs. Major augmented the salary and her husband's blind pension by serving as agent for Purity Cleaners of Jacksonville and collecting C.I.P.S. bills. Since 1937 she has been town clerk of Chambersburg.

They have two children, and both are graduates of Illinois College. Raymond Loezle now has the mail route out of Chambersburg. James Elmo went from Illinois College to Macomb, where he got his master's degree in mathematics, and is now teaching in Meredosia.

Time For Community Work

On Sunday, all calls are supposed to be made between 7-9 a.m. and 5-7 p.m. This enables the Majors to participate fully in the work of Chambersburg Christian church. Mrs. Major is also active in the Chambersburg Community club.

"The years here have been good and have gone fast," she says. "Now and then some cranky person gave us a little trouble, but nearly all the people have been simply wonderful."

T. W. Callihan, Former Principal At J.H.S., Dies

Word has been received of the death of Tressler W. Callihan of Boston, Mass., a former principal of Jacksonville high school, who later was superintendent of the Galesburg public schools.

Mr. Callihan was an alumnus and trustee of Knox College at Galesburg, Ill. He engaged in teaching after his graduation from Knox in 1910 as an honor student.

Mr. Callihan left Galesburg to become superintendent of agencies of the John Hancock Life Insurance Co. in Boston and later established his own insurance company in Boston, specializing in employee benefit protection.

CORRECTION

It was stated in a previously published account of an automobile accident at College and Clay avenues, that Darrell R. Gilmore, 806 East College avenue, collided with another car. This was incorrect, according to police report, as Mr. Gilmore's car was struck by a car which allegedly did not stop for the stop sign. A ticket was issued to the driver of the other car, for appearance in police magistrate's court.

Wesley Chapel To Discuss Expansion

A meeting will be held in the Wesley Chapel church on Saturday, Jan. 14 at 1:30 p.m. to discuss plans to enlarge the building. The time has come when the present building does not take care of needs, especially of children and youth, Wesley Chapel officials have pointed out.

A joint statement by the pastor and committee said: "They are our most precious investment and we would regret to fail them. We hope it is only reasonable to have conveniences in our church comparable to the average home. We must go forward or find ourselves going backward. We trust and hope that our Church is an asset to the entire community, regardless of whether you are a member or not. "We welcome all members and interested friends at this meeting and appreciate any encouragement by word or action which helps make this project a reality."

Silhouette For Spring Of 1961 Little Changed

By JOY MILLER
AP WOMEN'S Editor

NEW YORK (AP)—Nobody expected a great new silhouette for spring 1961. And one hasn't materialized.

This means, with the end approaching for the New York couture group showings, you can chalk up the season as one of the more successful for fashion forecasting.

In lieu of lines, designers have shown the 200-plus visiting fashion writers attending the 36th Annual Press Week of tender regard for wearability and an adventurous awareness of fabrics.

Four fashion houses presented their couture concepts Wednesday and they bolt down to: costumes, costumes, costumes, costumes.

Roxane of Samuel Winston made a dramatic departure. Instead of the usual combination of solid jacket and skirt with print blouse and matching print jacket lining, she came up with print jackets—the print forming the outside, that is.

Davidow went right along with the costume trend. His coat and suit coordinates for spring sported blouses in colors dyed to match, with the emphasis on monochromes.

Jackets in the Davidow collection ranged from just below the waist to the hipbone. One longer style was straight, but mostly the short jackets were boxy or cardigan and the longer were fitted. Skirts were straight but easy.

Paul Parnes' collection designed by Beni Claire was the usual highly wearable group of clothes women have come to expect from this house. There was a great attention to detail, and a vast range of fabrics—from lightweight tweeds and wools, to sheer crepes, silk prints and embroidered organdy.

Parnes used lace appliques as generously as the succeeding collection of Harvey Berin's. The bias cut was big with Berin, and so were bloused backs on bodices, draped skirts with floating panels and gathers to soften slim skirts.

MUST LIKE TAXES

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Some people must like to pay taxes.

T. E. McDowell, assistant tax collector for Duval County, said several persons have paid their tax bills twice. After the office mailed receipts for the first payment, the taxpayers made out new checks and sent them back with the receipts. The tax collector's office wishes it wouldn't happen. It makes extra work checking the previous payment and sending the money and receipts back.

WRONG RED BOX

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—A man asked a passer-by where to pay the overtime parking ticket he had received. "In the little red box," was the reply.

And that, said Asst. Fire Chief Tommy Scovill, is why all of Little Rock's downtown firefighting equipment went screaming into the business district Wednesday. The motorist got a fire box instead of the parking fine box.

Democrat Club Hears Student From Hawaii

Miss Myrtle Takaki, MacMurray College student from the island of Maui, second largest in the Hawaiian chain, was the speaker for the January meeting of the Morgan County Democratic Woman's Club, Tuesday evening, in the Garden Room of the Dunlap Hotel.

Miss Takaki gave a graphic picture of life in the Hawaiian Islands, describing the food, dress, language, religion, governmental organization, climate, and products of the islands, in general, and of Maui, in particular.

Questions directed to the speaker by her audience served to emphasize the similarities, rather than the differences, between life in the newest state of the union and the mainland.

Miss Takaki was introduced by Miss Lucille Bowe, program chairman. Mrs. Nelle Wandell, president, presided at the business meeting which preceded the program. A committee consisting of Mrs. Mabel Brown, Miss Fannie Boyd, and Mrs. Homer Baptist was appointed to arrange for the annual Jefferson Day celebration in April.

Mrs. Lewis Gotschall, hospitality chairman, announced that she will be hostess for the next meeting which will be held at her home on South Diamond street on Tuesday, Feb. 14.

Mrs. Mabel Brown and Mrs. Bernice Dodsword were hostesses for Tuesday night's meeting.

'Untouchables' To Run Despite Federal Protest

NEW YORK (AP)—American Broadcasting Co. says it is going ahead with a network television production of "The Untouchables" tonight despite a protest from the director of the Federal Bureau of Prisons.

ABC, beyond saying the show would be presented, had no comment on the protest by James W. Bennett.

Bennett, in a telegram Monday, asked ABC to withhold the second installment of a program about Al Capone's transfer to Alcatraz 25 years ago.

His objection came after the showing of the first installment of "The Big Train." Bennett telegraphed: "I vigorously protest totally-unfounded implications reflecting on the integrity of the officers of the Bureau of Prisons as depicted last week in 'The Untouchables.' " "The Big Train" is a two-part episode in "The Untouchables" series.

The first show, about the transfer of the late Chicago mobster from Atlanta penitentiary to Alcatraz in San Francisco Bay, was "utterly fantastic," Bennett contended.

MRS. KENNEDY TO LIMIT ACTIVITIES
AT INAUGURATION

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—On advice of her doctors, Mrs. John F. Kennedy will restrict her participation to main inaugural ceremonies and festivities in Washington next week.

Pierre Salinger, press secretary to the president-elect, said in announcing this Wednesday that the next first lady is having a normal recovery from the Caesarean birth of a son Nov. 25.

But Salinger added that her doctors want her to continue to take it relatively easy for a while. For that reason, Salinger added, Mrs. Kennedy will take part in only these inaugural events.

The concert and the fund-raising gala the evening of Jan. 19, and all of the principal inaugural events of Jan. 20. These include the oath-taking ceremony at the Capitol at noon that day, review of the inaugural parade from the area in front of the White House, and the inaugural ball that evening.

NEW YORK (AP)—Wholesale food prices dipped this week, Dun & Bradstreet, Inc., reported. The organization's index declined to $6.15 from $6.17 last week and was 6.4 per cent above the $5.78 level of a year ago.

Educational Meet On Cancer Held At Carrollton

CARROLLTON—A teacher-training session on cancer education sponsored by the Greene County Chapter of the American Cancer Society was held Monday in the Colonial Room at Day's cafe beginning at 4 p.m. with a dinner served at six p.m.

Mrs. Charles Meek of Carrollton, the educational chairman of the Greene County Chapter of the American Cancer Society, presided assisted by members of her committee. Mrs. Meek introduced Mrs. Irma W. Hays, field representative of the Illinois Division of the American Cancer Society who showed the films "Cancer Challenge to Youth" and "To Smoke or not to Smoke" to the 36 persons registered for the dinner meeting.

Dr. F. Earl Walker of Roodhouse led the discussion following the showing of the films and talked on the "Seven Danger Signals." Dr. Walker stated that the hormone drugs are increasingly important in the treatment of cancer during the last ten years and that steroid medication for the treatment of leukemia has advanced during the last five years. He further stated that no evidence had been produced showing that cigarette smoking is not the cause of lung cancer.

Dr. A. D. Wilson, Carrollton, discussed "Present Methods of Treatment for Cancer" and stated that education leading to early detection of the disease is still one of the most important means of cure.

Mrs. Thelma Wilkinson, Roodhouse Greene county superintendent of schools, and her assistant, Howard Berline of White Hall presented teaching aids available for cancer education including pamphlets, booklets and several excellent 16 mm. films. These aids are available free not only to schools but to any person or group wishing information on this all important subject. Copies of the two films shown by Mrs. Hays Monday evening and an educational literature kit were presented to each school in the county for class room use.

Mrs. Paul Pressler, Carrollton, the chairman of the Greene County Chapter of the American Cancer Society welcomed the group and introduced the 1961 Crusade Chairmen who are Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Daum of Carrollton.

The session Monday opened with a prayer by the Rev. Robert Pitcher pastor of the Carrollton Methodist church and the invocation before the meal was given by the Rt. Rev. Monsignor Michael Enright of St. John's Catholic church, Carrollton.

Representatives were present from the schools in the following towns, Carrollton, Patterson, White Hall, Greenfield, Roodhouse and Eldred. Mrs. Meek the chairman of the education committee and the members of her committee are ready to assist anyone in the county in securing any of the educational material which is available in the county for use individually or in groups. The members of the committee are Mrs. E. J. Lukeman, Carrollton; Mrs. Dean Langer, White Hall; Mrs. Arnel Greer, Greenfield and Mrs. Thelma Wilkinson, Roodhouse.

Back in the early days of contract a player passed this South hand or something like it. The explanation was, "I don't bid four card spade suits and my hand is too big for one no-trump and too small for two no-trump."

Today, any good player would open this hand one club unless he felt in the mood to cheat a point on his two no-trump requirements. The reason for this is that a club is almost always responded to, while there is always a chance that a spade opening will be passed. This hand represents no exception. Most North players would pass a one spade opening, but almost anyone would respond one diamond to the club bid.

At this point, South must take the bull by the horns and jump to the no-trump game. It is too much to ask North to make two bids with this collection of nothing.

It is not the soundest three no-trump contract in the world but once the queen of diamonds drops on the first lead of the suit, South will be able to lead back a spade and make 11 tricks.

What do you do?

A—Bid four spades. Your partner could not give you an immediate spade raise and while four spades should make, you do not want to get any higher.

TODAY'S QUESTION
Instead of bidding three spades your partner has jumped to four spades. What do you do in this instance?

MacMurray Five Beats Augustana, 72-60

Highlanders In Charge All The Way For 9th Win

ROCK ISLAND — Coach Bill Flynn's MacMurray Highlanders took charge early here Wednesday night to lead all the way in dealing a 72-60 defeat to Augustana College. The win upped MacMurray's mark to nine wins against four losses while the Vikings fell their eighth setback in 11 starts.

The hosts outscored MacMurray from the field, 24-23, but committed 22 fouls and the Highlanders sank 26 of 33 attempts from the charity line to nail down the decision. It was a hotly contested game from start to finish as tempers flared on the hardwood.

The Highlanders used a pressing defense throughout most of the game and controlled the boards with Larry Krulac hauling in 14 and Roy Hahnfeldt ten.

Five Highlanders hit the double figure mark with Little, Price and Flynn collecting 13 apiece while McCarty chipped in with 11 and Hohenberger added ten to the winning cause.

Augustana, who hit on 11 of 20 free throws, pulled within four points of the lead early in the second half before MacMurray took charge once again.

Shaw Becomes Viking QB

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — George Shaw, a gifted passer hounded by misfortune throughout a six-year National League career, joined the new Minnesota Vikings Wednesday as their No. 1 quarterback.

The 27-year-old former Oregon star was dealt to the Vikings by the New York Giants in exchange for Minnesota's No. 1 draft selection next fall.

"We had to have a top veteran quarterback to get off the ground and we've got him," said Vikings General Manager Bert Rose. "He's one of the finest passers in the league."

Baltimore Colt General Manager Don Kelleit, in town to try to sign Tom Brown, the University of Minnesota's lineman of the year, quipped.

"You've scored a 10-strike," Kelleit told owners of the fledgling pro team. "This fellow's going to be a terrific asset."

Shaw started out that way with Baltimore six years ago but, after a superb rookie season, ran into a knee injury and a newcomer named Johnny Unitas in 1956.

He understated Unitas until 1959, when he joined the Colts as an alternate for Charlie Conerly. But a bad thumb stopped him in 1959 and Conerly was still the No. 1 quarterback the end of the 1960 season.

ILLINI DUNKERS — Photographic trick gives "tall look" to current University of Illinois basketball team's front line — left to right, 6-8 sophomore Bill Burwell, Brooklyn, N.Y.; 6-5 sophomore Dave Downey, Canton; and 6-7 senior John Wessels, Rockford (West). Musial Doubts If He'll Be Active In '62

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Stan Musial has expressed doubt he will be an active player in 1962 but Solly Hemus disagrees.

Hemus, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, said Wednesday he believes the Cardinal star will remain active as long as he can help the club in any manner.

Musial made his remarks at Houston's first major league dinner at which Dickie Kerr, the man who converted Musial from a sore arm pitcher into one of the game's greatest outfielders, received the first annual Tris Speaker memorial award.

Musial Tuesday night told the banquet audience of over 900 he would like to play in the $15 million domed stadium Houston plans for its 1962 debut in the National League.

"I wish Houston was going to be in the league this season," he said. "I'd like to hit under that dome. But I doubt I will be an active player in 1962."

Hemus, one of seven National League managers attending the dinner, said Musial's remarks certainly indicate 1961 would be his last year as a player.

"But I don't believe he'll quit as long as he can help the team in any way. The guy loves the game. He's already started getting in shape for next season, and I firmly believe he'll be around as long as he can help. It may be for 30 games, 40 games, or 100 but he'll be in there."

Indiana Has Pair Among Top Ten Scorers

CHICAGO (AP) — Indiana, one of the four teams which have played two conference basketball games, has two players among the Big Ten's top ten individual scorers.

Indiana's big Walt Bellamy is third in official statistics released Wednesday with a two-game average of 23.5. Hoosier Tom Boalard is tied for seventh with 16.0.

The conference pace-setter, after one game, is Purdue's Terry Dischinger, who scored 41 points in the Bollermakers' 79-64 opening triumph over Northwestern Monday night.

Next is Ohio State's famed Jerry Lucas, like Dischinger a 1960 Olympic cage star, with 35 points in the Buckeyes' lone conference start, a 91-65 victory over Illinois.

Other leaders who have played two league games include Iowa's Frank Allen with an 18.0-mark for fifth spot, and three Wisconsin players, Tom Huggbanks, Dick Dumas and Ken Siebel, all with a 15-point average.

18-YEAR-OLD BOXER DIES

WHEELING, W. Va. (AP) — Sherman Walker, 18-year-old middleweight fighter, died in a hospital Wednesday of injuries suffered in a boxing bout at the Ohio Valley Yacht Club.

The Stewartsville, Ohio, youth was knocked down twice by John Carmichael of Steubenville, Ohio, before the referee stopped the fight in the middle of the second round Tuesday night. It was a scheduled three-round bout.

ILLINI DUNKERS — Photographic trick gives "tall look" to current University of Illinois basketball team's front line — left to right, 6-8 sophomore Bill Burwell, Brooklyn, N.Y.; 6-5 sophomore Dave Downey, Canton; and 6-7 senior John Wessels, Rockford (West). Three Teams Undeclared In Abe Lincoln League

There is still a wide open race in the Abe Lincoln conference as Easton, Greenvew, and Petersburg have unblemished records in conference action. Easton and Greenvew have topped three games each while Petersburg has won in its only conference test.

The slate is heavy with conference encounters during the month of January and it would be difficult to pick a solid favorite for the loop crown. The three undefeated teams seem about evenly matched and fast improving Athens cannot be counted out in spite of an early league loss to Easton.

Easton came away with first place honors in the first annual Abe Lincoln Tournament held at Easton. The Hawks took down Athens, Petersburg and Greenvew. Their victory was by an 11 point margin. A much closer game was their narrow 48-42 win over Petersburg. Easton meets both Greenvew and Petersburg on the road in conference action and the Bulldogs and Jays will be out to turn the tables. Easton saw their unbeaten record go up in smoke as they bowed to Mason City 82-50. A second successive setback came at the hands of Hartsburg 69-60.

Easton faces another tough test Jan. 13 at Havana. Their next conference action will be against Ashland Jan. 17 at Ashland. Greenvew's Bulldogs downed Ashland and Chandierville in the conference tourney before losing to Easton in the title game. Since then they have run their record to 9-2 with wins over Tri City and Ashland, in a conference test. The Ashland win was Greenvew's third conference triumph. Greenvew will face a stern conference test this week when they take on up and coming Athens in a game at Athens.

The Petersburg Bluejays have bounced back with three straight wins to even their season's record at 4-4 after a slow start that saw them drop their first three games. Petersburg drew a first round bye in the conference tourney and then lost to Easton as a second half rally couldn't quite close a 14-point first half deficit. They claimed the third place prize with an easy win over Chandierville. Since then the Jays romped over Virginia 82-49 and downed Balyki 65-52 for their initial conference win. The Jays journey to Perry and then travel to Chandierville for a conference game Jan. 13.

Bill Fee's Athens Warriors bowed out of the conference tourney in a loss to Easton. Then they came out fourth in the 16 team Waverly Tourney. At Waverly they beat Meredosia and unbeaten Kincaid before bowing to eventual champion pawnee. They lost the third place contest to Auburn. Athens rolled over Chandierville in a recent conference test, then really gained in stature with a 59-50 win over Peitshans of Springfield. The Warriors now have a 6-5 record and a 1-1 conference mark. They take on two tough opponents this week as they entertain Greenvew Jan. 10 and Mason City Jan. 13. Next week they will host Petersburg Jan. 17. Chandierville's Comets beat Ashland in their opening conference tournament game before bowing to Greenvew and Petersburg. Athens administered a conference defeat to the Comets to make it three losses in a row. This even-up Chandierville's record at 5-5 and puts them at 2-2 in conference play. Chandierville will entertain Petersburg's Jays in a league game Jan. 13.

Ashland has played but two games in recent weeks, losing both. They were knocked out of the conference tourney by Chandierville, then dumped by Greenvew in their first conference action. The rebuilding Panthers are now 2-7 for the season. They play non-conference foes this week, meeting St. Mary's and Tri City. Next week they will face league opponents Easton and Balyki.

Tallula's Flyers have dropped their last three games, losing by sizeable margins to Pleasant Plains, Routt, and Williamsville. Their record now stands at 2-9. Mike Bottom, sophomore standout, seems a bright spot in an otherwise dark picture as he has been over the 20 point total in most of their games. Tallula plays Balyki and Chandierville next week, meeting both for the second time. The Balyki game will be a league contest.

Balyki continued its skid as the Thunderbirds dropped their last three games. Greenvew beat them in the league tourney, Balyki edged them and then Petersburg used a 24 point final quarter to clip them 65-52. The Petersburg loss was their fourth in conference play. Balyki will be looking for better things in upcoming games with weaker conference foes Tallula and Ashland. Balyki's lone win was over Tallula in a non-conference game.

NCAA Approves 3 Bowl Games, Breaks With AAU

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The lawmakers for college sports ran into a small college rebellion Wednesday at one of the longest and windiest National Collegiate Athletic Association sessions in several years and wound up by passing only about half the controversial legislation that concerned in-season eligibility of players.

After disposing of non-controversial business early—including approval of three new football bowl games and the passing of a couple of restrictive rules about recruiting—the delegates talked themselves into a state of exhaustion and confusion before the session ended.

A key statement of "fundamental policy" barely mustered the necessary two-thirds majority. But a rule limiting college athletes to competition within five calendar years passed by an unexpectedly large vote.

Under this rule, described as a compromise between the four-year limit originally suggested and the need to recognize hardship cases, an athlete must complete his eligibility within five years of the time he first registers at any college. The committee's original idea was to try to end the practice of holding a football player out of competition for one season when he's not needed and thus prolonging his educational process as well as his competitive career.

Two constitutional amendments that were tabled were a proposal for a national pre-registration program under NCAA control and supervision and a proposal for a national transfer rule. It was mainly the small colleges that objected to these propositions as designed to solve the special problems of the bigger members that engaged in intensive recruiting.

Also passed was legislation to curb high school all-star football and basketball games and to discourage the importation of over-age foreign athletes.

Other activities were: Confirming through the NCAA Council report that the NCAA and the Amateur Athletic Union have broken off their long-standing alliance. The NCAA said it no longer will respect AAU suspensions. The breach may be healed, however, as committees from both organizations are working toward a new alliance.

Approving three new bowl games — the Presidential Trophy at Washington, D. C., the Aviation Bowl at Dayton, Ohio, and the Los Angeles Mercy Bowl.

Requiring that when a prospective athlete gets a visit to a college campus at the expense of someone who wouldn't normally accompany him on the visit.

Ruling that colleges may not pay expenses for athletic talent scouts in recruiting and may not claim he is a staff member and entitled to expenses by paying him a regular fee.

The statement of policy, which put into the NCAA constitution that eligibility, financial aid, recruiting and admissions policies are a part of the association's business, passed by a 137-68 margin, mustering only one more vote than was necessary.

DEALT TENNIS LOSSES

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP) — Christian Huhnke of Germany, and Mike Sangster of Britain were eliminated in men's doubles of the South Australian Tennis Tourney Wednesday.

Rod Laver and Owen French of Australia defeated Kuhnke and Wayne Reid of Australia, in one semifinal, 3-6, 2-6, 6-3, 6-4, 6-4. Bob Howe and Bob Hewitt of Australia, defeated Sangster and Neil Gibson, Australia, 6-2, 6-2, 4-6, 9-11, 6-3.

Howie Stethers, who played freshman football at Syracuse during 1960, is one of the most sought-after southpaw pitchers in the east.

Chicago Bears Sign Mike Ditka

By JERRY LISKA

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Bears Wednesday signed "the best college football player of 1960," All-America end Mike Ditka of the University of Pittsburgh.

Bear owner-coach George Halas announced Ditka's signing at a news conference, extremely proud that his National Football League club had out-maneuvered Houston of the rival American Football League.

Ditka was No. 1 draft choice of both the Bears and Houston. Halas declined to reveal Ditka's salary.

Ditka came to terms in his own parlor of his home at Alliquippa, Pa., with George Allen of the Bear staff, who flew from Chicago to Pittsburgh with him. Allen joined Ditka on his plane flight back from Hawaii's Hula Bowl game. Ditka was voted outstanding lineman in the East's 14-7 Hula Bowl triumph over the West last Sunday.

Halas made it plain that Ditka, 22, would have no trouble becoming a Bear regular next season. "He will play the closed end," said Halas. "We're counting on his rugged blocking to give our running attack a big lift. He's a great receiver, too."

Ditka, 6-foot 3 and weighing 228 pounds, had a brilliant record at Pitt. Defensively, he starred at end and linebacker. Offensively, he was a standout blocker and pass catcher and top-flight punter.

The Bears Wednesday also signed their ninth draft choice, halfback Bobby Wayne Bethune from Mississippi State. Bethune last season gained 228 yards on 49 rushes, caught 9 passes for 93 yards and led Mississippi State in pass interceptions with 6. He was not drafted by any AFL team.

At Houston, an official of the Houston Oilers had offered Ditka $13,500 a year, a $5,000 bonus, and a no-cut clause.

"It would be hard to place the value of an untied rookie higher than the contract we offered," one Oilers official said.

Ditka had been scheduled to come to Houston from last Saturday's Hula Bowl at Honolulu to confer with K. S. Adams Jr., owner of the Oilers, but cancelled the appointment.

Triopia At Routt Friday; MacMurray And JHS At Home Saturday

McKendree's invasion of the hilltop gymnasium to encounter Coach Bill Merris' Blueboys is the only local game on tap Thursday night but the momentum picks up Friday with Triopia at Routt while Jacksonville High journeys to Decatur for a meeting with MacArthur.

Saturday night Robinson is a guest of the Crimsons in the Bowl while over on the east side of town MacMurray hosts the University of Kansas City. Illinois College travels to Carlinville for a conference game with Blackburn to wind up the schedule for the local quintets this weekend.

Standing 2-1 in the Prairie College Conference, the IC fivesome will tangle with McKendree College Thursday evening in the Mound Ave. gym.

After suffering a stunning 36 point splurge by Carthage Tuesday night in the last ten minutes, the Merrismen face a questionable mark in the season tomorrow evening.

Although the Carthage defeat was the sixth straight for the IC quintet, Merris contends that this is a team not to be overlooked. A vastly improved floor game and an impressive shooting average has made Merris confident that the season record thus far is not a prerequisite of performances yet to come.

Two bright points for IC followers have been the rapid development of freshmen Mike Bandy, from Tallula, and W. W. Duncan, from Jacksonville. Starting the season as a substitute, Bandy has now put his predecessor on the bench. Bandy's close in shots and his out shooting have made this former "Little All Southern" performer a tremendous asset for the squad. Duncan, a former John Chapman product, at the forward post has greatly improved since his first game. His tremendous rebounding strength off the boards has given the Mound Ave. quintet a chance for their fast breaks.

Saturday evening, January 14, the Merrismen will travel to Blackburn College for

Cuba Pleads For Workers

HAVANA (AP) — Cuban agencies have appealed for volunteers to help in sugar and industrial production, logging because of the call-up of thousands of worker-militiamen.

Battalions of women, children and retired workers are sought to fill the gap while Fidel Castro's citizen soldiers remain on war footing against what he calls the threat of invasion from the United States.

Announcers indicated the volunteers are expected to work without pay as a contribution to Castro's revolution. Regular workers summoned for militia duty receive wages from their employers while in uniform.

It is 12 days since Castro mobilized the island's workers from farms and factories and the natural result has been a slump in all forms of production.

Newspapers and radios broadcast appeals for young and old to join work battalions to harvest Cuba's sugar crop—mainstay of a faltering economy—and help maintain factories and mills.

The National Federation of Sugar Workers, many of whose 500,000 members are on duty in militia units, called on all Cubans "including retired workers and children" to sign up for emergency jobs. Cane-cutting has started and grinding is under way in this first annual sugar season completely under government control.

A group of government-operated textile mills announced the enlistment of "patriotic brigades of volunteer workers" to help maintain output of cloth.

Castro took a hand personally last weekend in preparation of offensives against what the semi-official paper Revolution calls "the Yankee menace."

Revolution featured dispatches and photographs showing Castro directing target practice of new antitank guns obtained from Communist Czechoslovakia. It claimed the gunners fired on targets 15 miles at sea—a far piece for such weapons—and scored direct hits.

SCIENCE AT WORK

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The world's smallest motor, life on the moon and wild geese are subjects current for science at work.

A $1,000 SPECK

Prof. Richard P. Feynman said in an article last year that he intended to offer a $1,000 prize to the first man to make a working electric motor measuring only 1-64th inch cubed. But he didn't actually make the offer.

Last month, William McLellan walked into Feynman's California Institute of Technology laboratory with a rotating motor as big as a speck in your eye. It had 13 parts, made in 2 1/2 months of lunch hours with the aid of a microscope, watchmaker's lathe and toothpick. Weight: about 100,000th of an ounce.

Feynman said his conscience bothered him, although he hadn't actually offered the prize, so he sent McLellan a $1,000 check. Now he's worried. The same article mentioned another $1,000 prize—to the first man to reduce a printed book page 1-25,000th of its length and width, yet which would be read with an electron microscope.

MOON LIFE?

Was there once life of some sort on the moon?

There may have been, says J. J. Givervary of Allis Chalmers Manufacturing Co. Life may have existed in the water that Givervary believes once occupied part of the moon's surface. He points to dark areas in the moon's seas as carbon deposits—relics of life left to die when the moon's water evaporated into space.

GOOSE

Geese apparently stay together for months, and sometimes years, in small groups or flocks—and they have their own way of greeting personal friends, a scientist says.

One bird manages to keep himself to one side of his neighbor. Then he extends his neck obliquely to the ground and gives a characteristic goose call. Moreover, birds who greet each other this way have normally had a previous close relationship, says Dr. Robert B. Klopman of Cambridge University.

PRINCESS ASTRID TO WED COMMONER

OSLO, Norway (AP) — Following the lead of her sister Ragnhild, Princess Astrid is marrying a commoner Thursday. Astrid and Johan Martin Ferner, a divorced haberdasher, will be wed before a lily-banked altar of the Asker village Lutheran church.

Princess Ragnhild, who was married there in 1953 to shipowner Erlin Lorentzen, will be on hand for the rites uniting her younger sister, 28, and Ferner, 33.

So will Britain's Princess Margaret and her commoner husband, Antony Armstrong-Jones. They were among many guests, including representatives of most of Europe's ruling royal houses, who arrived Wednesday.

King Olav V, the bride's father, gave dinner for 200 guests at the Oslo palace.

SUSPENSION FOR RALSTON?

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The San Francisco Examiner says 19-year-old tennis star Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield very likely faces suspension from the United States Lawn Tennis Association for temper displays.

Ralston's case will be taken up "behind closed doors" at the USLTA's Executive Committee meeting in New Orleans on Feb. 3, the newspaper said Wednesday.

Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Wall Street is finding plenty of good news among the bad these days as the profit reports roll in.

The big drop in profit margins that depressed the stock market six months ago seems to have been halted. Fourth-quarter earnings mostly held at third-quarter levels, and many companies say they expect the first three months of 1961 to show the same leveling trend.

Corporations announcing profit gains in 1960 over 1959 outnumber by a slim margin those reporting declines.

And in the reports Wall Street is finding still further proof of how uneven the business slowdown has been—many industries struggling steadily upward as others lagged. And also showing up is further evidence of a greater role for service industries, which mostly are advancing while the manufacturing ones often are ailing.

Among the first 118 nonfinancial corporations to report on their fiscal 1960 earnings, 64 show gains over the previous year and 54 report declines.

The banks and other financial institutions mostly report record or near-record earnings. The railroads, however, are trailing badly. The utilities are expected to show model gains when their full year reports are in. The one giant to report so far, American Telephone & Telegraph, shows an increase of 9.5 percent in the 12 months ending Nov. 30.

The reports are getting special scrutiny today, not only by the stock market but also by government agencies trying to gauge their tax collections, and by business planners looking for any clue as to 1961 prospects.

Wall Street is taking comfort from the many corporations who have braked the slide in profit margins, which was sharp in the spring and early summer. Many firms have been able to cut costs, such as inventory carrying charges. Others have pushed the more popular products or services in their diversified activities.

And in spite of some dire predictions about the months ahead, more business executives are saying that they expect a pickup in new orders soon, with output gains to follow, and also better profits.

But they admit that in the current three months, profits may be level with the end of 1960 but still look bad against the many records set early in that year.

Adding it up, if business is slower today than many felt, the net results are still pretty encouraging.

U.S. Astronauts Ready To Go But Equipment Isn't

LANGLEY AIR FORCE BASE, Va. (AP)—Are America's astronauts physically and psychologically ready to go? Said one Wednesday: "We can give you a one-word answer—yes."

But his superior quickly pointed out that while the seven space men may be ready to go into orbit, America's equipment still isn't ready to send them there.

Hopes were expressed, however, that the United States may orbit its first spacemen before the end of 1961.

At a news conference, Dr. Robert R. Gilruth, director of the Project Mercury man-in-space program, reported that space technicians are working on a program to strengthen the Atlas booster rocket. The rocket has had two vital failures. And present plans call for the United States to use the Atlas in launching the first astronaut.

Lt. Col. John E. Glenn Jr., of the Marines, was the astronaut who said he was ready right now to fly into space. Glenn said he spoke for the other six, too.

Gilruth and other project leaders also disclosed:

1. When the program started more than two years ago there were expectations that a man might be shot into orbit by January 1961. But Gilruth said that does not mean the program has lagged—it only means that problems were tougher than originally envisioned.

2. In the near future perhaps three astronauts will be selected for the first manned but nonorbital flight in a Mercury capsule boosted by a Redstone missile. From among those three, the man for that flight will be picked. The other two will be alternates. "We still have a lot of (rocket) flights to make before manned, suborbital flight is attempted," Gilruth added.

3. The Mercury program ultimately may cost as much as $500 million.

American Grid Coaches Honor Two Mentors

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The American Football Coaches Association Wednesday night named Murray Warmath of Minnesota major college coach of the year and Warren Woodson of New Mexico State the minor college coach of the year.

The association said voting was close in both divisions with Jim Owens of the University of Washington and Clarence Stasavich of Lenoir Rhyne College, Hickory, N.C., finishing as strong runners-up in the respective divisions.

As coach of the Minnesota Gophers, Warmath took his team from last place in the Big Ten in 1959 to the Associated Press ranked national championship in 1960. Minnesota won eight of nine games in regular season play but lost 17-7 to Washington in the Rose Bowl.

Woodson coached the Aggies to an undefeated season after they had 21 losing seasons. New Mexico State went undefeated through 11 games last year, including a 20-14 victory over Utah State in the Sun Bowl.

Launch Carrying About 40 Sinks In Mediterranean

GIBRALTAR (AP) — A small Spanish-owned vessel believed to be carrying about 40 illegal emigrants bound from Morocco to Israel foundered in heavy seas off the North African coast Wednesday.

Rescue vessels in the western Mediterranean reported Wednesday night they had picked up three crewmen survivors and bodies of 23 men, women and children.

Moroccan officials said the craft was taking Jews without exit permits from Melilla to Israel via Gibraltar.

They said heavy seas drove it onto hidden reefs off Alhucemas where it sank about 10 miles off the coast.

The craft was identified as a 65-foot motor vessel registered in Honduras and owned by Spaniards. It carried a Spanish crew.

Spanish reports had indicated the mayor of Gibraltar, J. A. Hassan, and his family might have been aboard as cruise passengers but they were located later at his residence, Hassan, who is Jewish, expressed deep regrets over the sinking.

Algeciras coastal radio, in nearby Spain, said reports from rescue vessels said the ship, named the Price, sprang a leak in the bow and sank within minutes in the Bay of Alhucemas. The bay is about 150 miles southeast of this British crown colony at the tip of Spain. The radio said the suddenness of the leak prevented the Price from sending a distress call.

The skipper of the Price, Francisco Morilla, was among the survivors.

The traffic in transporting Jews from North Africa to Israel has increased lately since curbs on Jews have become stricter in Morocco.

In October, leaders of Morocco's Jewish community, which totals some 20,000 persons, sent a list of grievances to the government. Difficulty in obtaining passports was one of their major complaints.

Jews emigrate despite the Moroccan restrictions, but it is risky. In August, 60 were arrested in northern Morocco trying to leave the country illegally. Some were survivors of the Agadir earthquake disaster, in which about 10 per cent of the 12,000 victims were Jews.

Transporting Jewish immigrants to Israel secretly by ship is an old and historic story. Thousands slipped into Palestine that way before the country won its independence in 1948 and the British-imposed ban on immigration was lifted.

FBI INVESTIGATES SYNAGOGUE BOMBING

CHICAGO (AP) — FBI agents Wednesday stepped into the investigation of the bombing of a synagogue.

Mayor Richard J. Daley termed the blast a "shocking thing" and said he knew the police department will work to capture those who "desecrate houses of worship."

Police throughout the city were alerted to be on guard against similar incidents in other neighborhoods.

The explosion let go late Tuesday night outside the basement entrance to the Anshe Emet Synagogue on the North Side. The basement door and an inner door were knocked loose and about 100 windows in nearby buildings were shattered.

James H. Gale, head of the FBI staff in Chicago, said his men sought evidence of any violation of federal laws.

William J. Nudelman, executive director of the synagogue, said classes and services were continuing. But police searched the classrooms to make sure no explosives were hidden in any of them.

KING OF YEMEN TARGET OF SEVERAL BOMBING ATTACKS

LONDON (AP)—Intrigue swirls around King Ahmed in his lonely capital in Yemen and he has been the target of several bombing attacks. Allied diplomats said Wednesday night.

Alternately blamed are Yemeni refugees from his rival, medieval rule, or agents of President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic, who covet Yemen as well as the rest of the Arabian Peninsula.

This is the story told by diplomats with direct lines to the king's desert capital of Taiz:

The chief justice of Yemen, Qadhi Aligabry, was murdered last summer by unknown assailants.

The 68-year-old king thereupon ordered the arrest of several Yemeni officials, including the chief of police, saying they had fallen down on their jobs.

A group of Yemenis who had been campaigning for political and social reform then fled to Aden, the neighboring British colony. Several asked for and got political asylum.

But resistance to Ahmed's steady rule did not subside. Since August about a dozen bomb explosions have been reported in various parts of the kingdom. The most recent went off last month.

Several burst in Ahmed's palace. Nobody here knows for sure just how many people have been killed or injured in these blasts.

AFL Owners Begin Their Winter Meeting

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — American Football League club owners Thursday began their winter meeting, with no indication that heavy seasonal financial losses have dampened enthusiasm for 1961.

There had been predictions from some areas a year ago the AFL would not get through its first season. But the eight club owners will begin two days of discussions with expansion as one of the items on the agenda.

No expansion is indicated this year but such cities as Philadelphia, Chicago, Cincinnati, Seattle, Kansas City, Jacksonville, Fla., Memphis, Tenn., and Atlanta, Ga., have figured in speculation on 1962.

There was definite indication, however, the league may authorize immediate transfer of the Los Angeles Chargers to San Diego.

Barron Hilton, owner of the Chargers, and K. S. (Bud) Adams Jr., owner of the Houston Oilers, are among the year's heaviest financial losers despite having fielded division champions.

The Los Angeles losses have been estimated as high as $900,000. Adams has placed his first season deficit at $710,000, plus $70,000 he spent while winning a court fight with the Los Angeles Rams over the services of Billy Cannon.

Kennedy Team Predicts Loss Of Race To Put First Man In Space

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The United States will probably lose the race to fire a manned space vehicle into orbit around the earth, President-elect John F. Kennedy's space task force reported Wednesday.

The group called for an urgent effort to develop a more powerful thrust for spacecraft—the field in which the Soviet Union has been consistently ahead—and said better leadership of the whole military and civilian space program is imperative.

The task force pictured this country as lagging not only in the prestige-packed competition for the first man in space, but in developing military missiles needed for a secure deterrent force and supersonic commercial craft for the tasks still left to winged airplanes.

Kennedy headquarters here made the task force report public without saying what Kennedy thought of it—but announced naming of the task force chairman, Massachusetts Institute of Technology scientist Jerome B. Wiesner, to be the incoming President's special assistant for science.

Kennedy returned to the family home in Palm Beach early Wednesday after flying down from a busy half-day in Washington, which included delivery to him of the space report.

His engagements were a golf game and a call on former President Herbert Hoover, who came to Florida for the dedication of a dike named for him.

Kennedy arranged to see Hoover at the home of Loy Anderson, Palm Beach banker.

His only announced business for the next few days is work on the address he will deliver at his inauguration Jan. 20.

However, appointment of George W. Ball as undersecretary of state for economic affairs, completing the top echelon of the new State Department, was announced. Ball, a Washington lawyer specializing in international practice, is also a close political associate of Adlai E. Stevenson, the 1952 and 1956 Democratic presidential candidate who will become ambassador to the United Nations in the new administration.

The space task force said national prestige, the department in which the Soviets have scored heavily since they placed the first satellite in orbit, is a prime consideration in space policy.

The official goals of the U. S. Project Mercury are a short manned space flight in April or May and a manned craft orbiting the earth late this year. There has been unofficial word that the program is far behind schedule.

The Soviet Union has made no exact target date public. But Premier Khrushchev said in September they were ready to launch a man into space. There were reports Wednesday of Soviet ships moving into the Pacific, possibly for a missile shot.

The task force said the first manned voyage into space is not necessarily the most important civilian objective in this field, though emphasis on the Mercury program may have made it appear so. And it said that, thanks to excellent instruments developed for space probes, the United States has a number of scientific triumphs to its credit.

"Our scientific accomplishments to date are impressive," the task force said, "but against the background of Soviet accomplishments with large boosters, they have not been impressive enough."

"We must not delude ourselves into thinking that it will be easy for the United States to maintain in the future a prominent position in space science," it said. "It will be easier for (the Soviets) to catch up with us in instrument development than for our engineers to catch up with the Russians in the technique of propulsion."

The report said more spending will be necessary, but it recommended no figures. It called for a national booster program, saying development of means of thrusting more weight into space "is a matter of national urgency."

MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

PITTSBURGH (AP) — John W. Galtbreath, president of the Pittsburgh Pirates, Wednesday was named Pittsburgh's "man of the year for 1960" by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Galtbreath was cited for guiding the Pirates for the past 14 years to the world championship last year. He also was honored for his part in giving the city the U.S. Steel-Mellon Building and for alum clearance activities.

HOW CAN YOU LOSE?

TIME FOR VIOLENCE

By Noel M. Loomis

XXVIII

Jones hesitated, but in the end his fear for his life overcame his mammoth egotism. He broke, "All right, Murphy. Do what he says." And having made the first move, he glanced again at that big black hole aimed at his heart, and became anxious. "Don't make any wrong move," he said. "He's crazy but he'll do it. I see it in his eyes. Drop your gun and go outside."

Murphy's face turned dark in the light of the coal-oil lamp. The cords knotted in his thick neck; obviously Murphy had had his own ideas about the woman. "The next time I meet you," he said harshly, "it'll be on different terms."

"Yes," said Bart. "They might be even, for a change." Murphy's eyes were filled with the rage of frustrated lust—but he was not the one who had the .44 aimed at his heart. He dropped both of his six-shooters on the table, and Bart permitted himself a full breath. He was standing with his back to the door, and actually he had a good chance to get two or three of them, but that was not enough. If shooting started, he was bound to die. And there would still be Catherine and two or three men left.

"One at a time," said Bart, holding his .44's motionless, both pointed at Jones.

Jones nodded, almost hastily. Another man dropped his guns on the table and went out. A third. The fourth.

Only Jones was left.

Bart breathed a little more easily. "All right, Jones. You have almost got a reprieve from a bullet. If you make a move now, it's far too late." Jones tossed his guns to the table, and Bart began to feel weak inside. One wrong move—one man who might suddenly have decided it was a good chance to get rid of Jones—and for a few seconds fire would blaze until the cabin would be as light as day; lead would smash its way into every corner; and afterward the acrid smoke would fill the room and for a few brief moments hide the holocaust of blood and death. But Jones went outside, and it was all over for the time being.

He crouched in the open for a second and saw two men walking toward the horses. The moon was coming up. He got a dipperful of water and went back to Catherine. He heard her faint voice: "Bart?"

"Yes. Don't worry. We'll head out for the JA until this is over."

They reached the JA ranch about midnight, and the foreman, Lee Jasper, got out of bed to listen to Bart's story. He called Goodnight, who was furious when he heard about it. Bart told him about being in jail at Mobetie, and Goodnight laughed. "Just keep out of his sight. Arrington is ace-high. If he knew what we're planning, he would buck like an eight-year-old steer with a heifly under his tail, but after it's all over, he can't help it. Since he didn't know anything about it, and inasmuch as it turned out all right—"

"Do you think it will—without a general shoot-out, that is?"

"It's your idea, isn't it?" asked Goodnight.

He was awake the next morning for breakfast. Since it was Sunday, they did not get up as early as usual. He sat at the table with the family and some of the hands, and filled himself with ham and eggs, hot biscuits with butter and peach preserves, pancakes, and watermelon. Catherine and Mrs. Goodnight would eat later.

Bart went presently to saddle up, and he was riding the black slowly through the yard when he saw Catherine come outside. She walked close to his stirrup. "You risked your life last night, Bart."

He looked down at her. "Catherine," he said, "I want to know one thing. Everybody mixed up in this—especially those on the other side—keep insisting you know more about old Ben's death than you told." He looked down at her. "Is that so?"

Her brown eyes were open and frank. "Yes, I do. I've tried to tell you, but you have turned it into something else. Ben sold me to Xenophon Jones," she said.

He stared at her, shocked by what she had said, reproachful of himself for having made her say it. Then he nodded slowly, although she was staring at the ground.

"He started out by saying Jones was younger than he was, and more suitable as a husband. But I told him he was all right. I married him and I intended to stick to him. He suggested I live with Jones for a month, and I got pretty mad. Finally he said he had promised."

"Ben insisted I had to go meet Jones up at the spring, but I had refused. He said then that he had already taken the money and he had to do something about it, and I shamed him. And finally Ben said, he absolutely wouldn't try to force me; he'd pay the money back, but he wasn't turning me over to them. Jones and Murphy both shot him together. Then they drug him to the house and left him in the back yard." (To Be Continued)

Community Club
At Nortonville
Holds Meeting

NORTONVILLE — The Nortonville Community Club met at the hall on Jan. 6 with Mrs. Herbert Clayton as hostess.

The meeting opened with the song "America the Beautiful" followed by the pledge to the flag which was led by Mrs. Roy Kelly.

The club prayer was repeated in unison. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary followed by the treasurer's report. A thank-you note was read from Mrs. Jack Ralston for the gift the club presented her.

The members voted to give a chair to the Morgan County T.B. Sanatorium. This is the county federation project for 1961. Each club in the county is to donate what they can toward chairs for this project.

The program was presented by Mrs. Harley Mayberry. She read an interesting paper on mental health. Mrs. Roy Kelly read a paper on "How to choose the right polish for your floors."

Roll call was answered by donating items for the state hospital. The meeting was closed with prayer.

The social hour was in charge of Mrs. Herbert Clayton with Mrs. Curtis Blair winning a prize.

The hostess served delicious refreshments to 19 members. The next meeting will be held Jan. 20 with Mrs. Roy Kelly as hostess.

Civics Club
Elects Officers
At Bluffs

BLUFFS — The Bluffs Civic Club held their first meeting of the year Monday evening in the club rooms. The business meeting was preceded by a delicious turkey supper served by the Bluffs Woman's Club.

Vernon Haggard presided at the business session. The principle business of the evening was the election of officers for the new year. They are Clyde Baulos, president; Russell Vortman, vice president. The secretary and treasurer were both re-elected, Harvey Vortman and Fred Muntman, respectively.

The Board of Directors will be George Krusa, William Kilver, Robert Friesen, C. R. Willis, Le-ray Vortman and M. J. Baulos. The officers will be regularly installed and the president is expected to name his committees for the coming year at the January 23 meeting.
